THE

AMERICAN BIBLIOPOLIST

VOLUME VI.

1874.

"He that loveth a book will never want a faithful friend, a wholesome counsellor, a cheerful companion, an effectual comforter. By study, by reading, by thinking, one may innocently direct and pleasantly entertain himself, as in all weathers, so in all fortunes."—BARROW.

PUB. LIBRARY,
DEC 31 1887
DETROIT, MICH.

NEW YORK: 84 NASSAU STREET.

LONDON: 14 YORK STREET, COVENT GARDEN.

1874.

INDEX.

"An index is the bag and baggage of a book, of more use than honor, even such who seemingly slight it, secretly using it, if not for need for speed, of what they desire to find."—T. Fuller's "Pisgah Sight."

[A separate Index to the "Handy Book about Books," will be issued on its completion. We have therefore deemed it unnecessary to give any for that portion published with the numbers of the Bibliopolist.—
